Australian Contemporary Paintings

An exhibition of recent purchases arranged by the State National Galleries for showing in Queensland,
New South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania,
Southern and Western Australia.

1956/57.

Foreword . . .

This exhibition has been arranged to show the type and standard of contemporary paintings acquired by the National Galleries of Australia during the preceding two years.

The exhibition is assembled every second year and the first opening takes place in the National Gallery at which the annual Interstate Directors Conference is being held. This year it will open in Brisbane and from there go to Sydney, Melbourne, Hobart, Adelaide, and Perth.
