QUEENSLAND ART GALLERY | GALLERY OF MODERN ART

ALAN YOUNG FILM LIBRARY

The Alan Young Film Library is a significant collection of 270 books, 843 DVDs, 90 videos and 13 journals covering the great cinema classics, Hollywood's golden years, cult movies and screen legends. It spans Australian, American, French, Italian and Japanese cinema, and includes Broadway musicals, film noir, film studios, horror, science fiction, Westerns and influential filmmakers.

Alan Young (1939–2010) was an avid film collector who was involved in Brisbane film festivals from 1966. Alan was a member of the non-profit Brisbane Cinema Group and ran the Magnificent Obsessions Film Society from his home in Graceville from 1990. He was also a well-respected member of the Gallery's Volunteer Guides team for 25 years.
